

Colliers International Strengthens Valuation & Advisory Services

-- Addition of multifamily appraisal company, Deverick and Associates, enhances national strength --

Dallas, August 27, 2019 – Continuing its strong growth in Dallas-Fort Worth, Colliers International Valuation & Advisory Services, a leading national commercial real estate valuation and advisory firm, announced today the addition of Deverick and Associates, Inc. (D&A), a Dallas-based appraisal firm specializing in multifamily appraisals. This skillset is important for Colliers' growth in Texas and the multifamily sector, especially with Government-Sponsored Enterprises such as Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac.

"Adding this talented team of professionals will enhance our service offering in the region and across the country," said Jeremy Walling, Executive Vice President of Colliers International Valuation & Advisory Services.

The D&A team has more than 10 valuation professionals. John Jordan, MAI, Founder and President of D&A, will now serve as Managing Director, Multifamily Client Services for Colliers and will oversee the ongoing growth of the company's multifamily agency appraisal platform for the U.S.

"We look forward to joining with Colliers, which shares our commitment to provide comprehensive appraisals and exceptional client service," said Jordan. "Colliers' vast geographic presence, its leading name recognition and innovative technology platforms will ensure our clients receive the best service possible."

"With the addition of D&A, we have secured a strong team in one of the most dynamic markets in the country," said Jerry Gisclair, National Client Services Director for Colliers' Valuation & Advisory Services. "This addition is in line with our long-term vision of becoming the leading valuation and advisory firm in the U.S."
